Read Romans 12

According to Paul, the liberation and new being that comes through Christ is an all encompassing event, a fundamental transformation, a "metamorphosis". The human contradiction, the dichotomy and division within the self, is a thing of the past. The radical nature of the new being implies an undivided integrity of God's claim upon us" Wolfgang Schrage

1. Is the pattern of this world good or bad?
2. Have you been metamorphosized, if not why not?
3. What is your role in the body?
4. Are you "joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer"?
5. What else jumps out to you from this passage?
